SIR, 6/1/35

Alleged Misappropriation of certain money received in the shape of Tulabhara in the Sri Rishyasringeswara Swami Temple at Kigga.

I have the honor to forward herewith in original, correspondence ending with letter No.A5-1605-33, dated 4-10-1935, from the Deputy Commissioner, Kadur District, reporting on the above. The Amildar's reports dated 22-8-1934 and 5-9-1935 enclosed in the records and the Deputy Commissioner's letter dated 24-3-1935 explain the facts of the case fully. There is some oral evidence to the effect that Tulabhara Seva took place in the temple in June 1925 and that Dharmadarsi, Mr. Chennakesava Rao received the amount which may be between Rs.2,000 and Rs.3,000 from those who performed the seva, and that a portion of it was invested in purchasing S.No.8 of Malnadu village. Mr. Chennakesava Rao, who is now dead, denied the receipt of the amount, but was, however, prepared to make over the land to the temple. His son is agreeable to carry out the promise. The temple shanbhog and sheikdar, and the Amildar of the taluk at the time, Mr. [illegible] Krishnamurti, deny knowledge of the seva itself.

2. The Deputy Commissioner is of opinion that, as it would be hard to prove in a court of law that the late Mr. Chennakesava Rao took the money and was responsible to account for it, the offer of S.No.8 of Malnad village measuring about 2 acres 30 guntas with a [illegible] of 16 guntas and bearing an assessment of Rs 32 may be accepted, and no other action seems possible at this distance of time. I agree [illegible]

the Deputy Commissioner and request approval to get the land transferred to the name of the temple by means of a registered deed at the cost of Mr. Chennakesava Rao's son.

3. As regards the officials responsible, it is unbelievable that such an important ceremony could have taken place in the absence of the temple sheikdar and shanbhogue and that the happenings would not have ~~x~~ come to the knowledge of the Amildar, Mr. C. L. Krishnamurti, who is now the District Sheristedar of Chitaldrug. The explanations furnished by Kasi pathiah and Mr. C. L. Krishnamurti cannot be accepted. Kasipathiah is now a clerk in the Hassan District. I am taking action against these officials.

4. The entire file of vernacular papers is enclosed.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
Muzrai Commissioner.
